- model sacrificial giving of time, talents, and treasures, including a commitment to the biblical pattern of tithing,
- understand, embrace, and promote the beliefs, mission, and vision of CCA,
- maintain a lifestyle that is above reproach.

Competency Qualifications:

Teachers at CCA shall:

- possess skills and experience related to teaching children (ages 8-12),
- demonstrate a clear understanding of the Christian discipleship process,
- be willing to learn the classical model of education and implement it in the classroom,
- be a capable oral and written communicator, with above-average language skills.
- be well organized, able to manage a classroom,
- possess the basic personality qualities, administrative skills, conflict-management skills, discernment skills, and relational skills necessary to relate well to children and their parents,
- have the ability to work with existing school staff and leadership in a unified way,
- preferably possess an undergraduate degree in a relevant field of study,
- be willing to complete further education and training.

Lines of Accountability & Organizational Relationships:

- Teachers shall receive supervision and support from the Headmaster,
- Teachers will receive an annual review from the Headmaster.
